Charles V. Sederstrom, Jr.

Charles V. Sederstrom, Jr. was born in Deadwood, South Dakota on December 18, 1941. He attended Black Hills State University in Spearfish, South Dakota and received his Juris Doctorate from the University of South Dakota in 1967. He began practicing law in Omaha, Nebraska in July of 1968 with Donald H. Erickson and subsequently began the law firm of Erickson|Sederstrom. Chuck's area of specialization has been in Corporate Law with a particular reference on Health Law. He was formerly Senior Vice President of Legal, Compliance and Legislative Services to Alegent Creighton Health, which is the largest nongovernmental employer in the state of Nebraska and the largest hospital in the state of Nebraska with 10 hospitals, 450 employed physicians, and over 100 separate points of entry into the health system.

Chuck was the Venerable Master of the Scottish Rite, Lodge of Perfection in the Omaha Valley and has been active in Masonic bodies over the course of thirty years. He is a member of the Scottish Rite, the York Rite, and Tangier Shrine, where he has been a member of the Royal Order of Jesters since 1985 and served as its Director in 1998. He was the Personal Representative of The Scottish Rite Sovereign Grand Inspector General of Nebraska for several years and has also been a member of The Scottish Rite Cathedral Board of Omaha which oversees the operation of The Scottish Rite Center. Chuck was appointed Scottish Rite Deputy to The Supreme Council for Nebraska in May 2007 and Sovereign Grand Inspector General in Nebraska in 2009. Over the course of the past thirty years, he has been involved with the Salvation Army having served on the local Omaha Board and for the past eighteen years served on the Advisory Board for the National Salvation Army. He has served the Omaha Salvation Army in many other capacities: Board Resources Committee, General Chairman of the Christmas Committee, Planning Committee, Chairman of the Advisory Board and Bequest and Endowment Committee in 1999. He received the Others Award in 1994. In addition, he was formerly Chairman of the Combined Health Agencies of America. Chuck was a very active member and leader in many organizations, including American Diabetes Association, American Lung Association, Arthritis Foundation, Boy Scouts of America, Combined Health Agencies Drive of Nebraska, Goodwill Industries, United Way, Chamber of Commerce and the Omaha Home for Boys. Chuck is currently active with the Autism Center of Nebraska, First Responders' Foundation, Scottish Rite, Burgess Health, West Health Institute and Omaha Northwest Rotary Club. Chuck was President of the Omaha Bar Association in 1984 - 1985.
